Wyoming.

An oil refinery of huge capacity is an assured institution for Big Horn Basin, Wyo., within the next three months, according to A. W. Coons, postmaster of Basin.

A dividend of 1 per cent on the outstanding capital stock of $18,000,000 was declared by the board of directors of the Midwest Refining Company. The dividends, amounting to $180,000, will be paid Aug. 1 to stockholders of record July 15. This is the third quarterly dividend this year.

New Mexico.

Abo pass, near Scholle, and about twenty miles from Willard, is likely to develop into a promising new mining camp. Assays of the rock disclose close gold, silver and copper in encouraging amounts.

The Socorro Mining & Milling Co., has shipped two and a quarter tons of bullion in June, and about an equal amount of concentrates. Seventy-three bars of bullion weighing a ton passed through the city one day last week.

Arizona.

Two cars of bullion, 100 tons, have been shipped from Cananea to Bisbee.

The force of men at the Bisbee mines was materially increased during the past month.

Development of the large ore body which was crosscut several weeks ago on the 565-foot level in the United Eastern mine in the Oatman district, is determining its values, and is proving its breadth and grade to be all that was claimed at the time of its discovery.

With the mines in the Warren district producing at the largest in their history, the situation would indicate prosperity in the same ratio for all of those living within the confines of the community. Announcement has been made by the officials of the Bisbee properties that a record is now being set and that if the production continues throughout the year, at the present ratio, a new record may be fully expected.

Colorado.

Stark and Hines, operating on the 1,000-foot level of the Last Dollar, are reported as being in pay ore.

A force of twelve men is being employed by Starkweather and Potts, operating the Labella mine on Bull hill, Cripple Creek.

The Carver lease on the 400-foot level of the Golden Cycle mine, now owned by the Vindicator, continues to surrender liberally of good grade ore.

The daily output of tungsten in Boulder county now has an estimated value of $5,250.

In the Cripple Creek district operations on the Mary McKinney mine have practically been suspended, so far as ore extraction is concerned, to permit of the installation of the new electric compressor and other machinery.

Tests made at the Durango Smelter indicate that Colorado contains large supplies of porphyry copper, far richer than those of the Utah Copper Company at Bingham, Utah, and of the Chino Copper Company at Silver City, N. M.

The London office of the Tomboy Mines Company, near Telluride, reports that the improved Tomboy mill handled 12,000 tons of ore in May, from which $47,500 was extracted in bullion for the Denver mint and $55,500 in concentrate for the smelter.

All expenses reached $60,500, showing a net profit for this English-American Company of $44,000. This is 41 per cent of the gross value of the ore. The company has paid $3,475,329 since 1896. Capital stock $1,500,000.

McIntosh, Ingram and associates, leasing on the fourth level of the Dead Pine mine at Cripple Creek, have about caught up the cave through which they are spilling and unless some unforeseen contingency arises then shipments will be started soon.

The Yeager lease on the 1,400-foot level of the Vindicator mine at Cripple Creek is making a splendid showing and a handsome net earning is realized. It is stated that during the month of May the two partners divided $1,200 between them after paying operating expenses.

BEST THING TO DO.

"I was awakened last night by a burglar in my room."
"What did you do?"
"I asked him what the devil he wanted."
"Did he tell you?"
"No. He shoved a pistol in my face and snarled, 'Stow the gab!'"
"Then what did you do?"
"I stowed the gab."

TROUBLES OF NEWLY RICH.

"Your daughter's brain, madam, appears to be normal."
"Dear, dear; we've never had anything of that kind in the family before, I'm sure!"

The Old, Old Story.
He pledged his heart; he pledged his love. He promised not to beat her. And then, to buy engagement ring. He pledged his gold repeater.

The Idea!
"I wish I knew some way to make money go farther," sighed the Old Fogey.
"I don't," replied the Grouch. "It's too far off as it is."

Knew of One Advocate.
Gabbleton—Edison declares that four hours' sleep is enough for any man.
Kidder—By Jove! That is exactly what my baby thinks!—Judge.

War's Horrors.
"Do you believe in the stories of cruelty in the zone of war?"
"Well, the Scotch Highlanders have their bagpipes with them."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

In the Nursery.
"Goodness gracious, children, where did you put little Willie?"
"Into the waste basket. We're playing robber barons and have put him into the dungeon."

On the Spot.
"On what grounds, sir, do you base your charge that I can't run a household?"
"Why, look at these coffee grounds."

Mean Man.
"Men do not understand women," said Mrs. Gabb.
"That's no joke," growled Mr. Gabb. "If they did women would have to do all the chasing."

Shylock.
"Can anyone in the audience lend me a ten-dollar gold piece?" asked the prestidigitator.
"On what?" queried the pawnbroker in the third row.

ALL IN THE NAME.

"How did you persuade your daughter to learn kitchen work?"
"By calling it domestic science."

The Exception.
Men may fret and men may fume And cry: "The trusts must go." But there's one trust they long for—The grocer's, when funds are low.

No Stickers for Him.
"If you find it impossible to keep open your line of retreat," said the military instructor, "what ought you to do?"
"Open up a line of advance," was the prompt reply.

Some Blower.
Redd—I see the whale's progress through the water is limited to ten or twelve miles an hour.
Greene—And yet it will blow more than a fellow who's fined $10 for speeding.

All a Mistake.

"Our correspondent referred to the raiap d'etre of a certain measure before the state legislature."
"Some of those newspaper men use flowery language."
"True. The author of the measure called him down sharply, however. Said there was nothing like that in his bill."

Learned by Experience.
"You used to think you couldn't do enough for me," said Mrs. Gaddera, poutingly.
"Now I know I can't," replied Mr. Gaddera, with cruel promptness.

An Easy Way.
"I say, janitor, I want some more hot air in this office."
"All right, sir; there are a couple of book agents on the next floor. I'll send them in."

Useful Improvement.
"I see nothing unusual about the typewriter."
"Don't you notice the mirror at the back? You have no idea how much time it saves a girl."

Considerate.
"Oh, do not let the word be 'No.'"
The lover cried; and thinking it would somewhat ease the cruel blow, The maiden simply answered "Nix."

The Object.
"Why do you write articles on how cheaply people can live if they try?"
"In the hope of getting enough money to avoid having to live that way."

Another Luxury.
Payton—We hear a great deal about the high cost of living and loving.
Parker—Yes, and the high cost of loving ought not to be sneezed at, either.—Life.

Played in Luck.
Askitt—Did you have any trouble in learning to play the cornet?
Bliott—None worth mentioning. All the neighbors were poor shots.

GAVE SIS AWAY.

Maiale—Well, mother, I told Mr. Quicker that my face was all the fortune I possess.
Tommy—Yes, and when I sneaked into the parlor he was trying his best to get at Sis' fortune.

Cutting Loose.
She climbed the social ladder. At last she reached the top. Lord knows how many relatives The poor thing had to drop.

The Treating Habit.
"Did you ever treat a man for a big head, doctor?" asked the caller.
"Why, that's what everybody treats a man for," replied the pill man.

Amplified Designation.
"Bliggins prides himself on calling a spade a spade."
"Yes. But he puts in a few adjectives when he gets out in the garden and tries to make one."

Paw's Idea.
Little Lemuel—Say, paw, what is a bachelor maid?
Paw—Really I don't know, son, unless it is a spinster with money.

Military Note.
The Captain—So your engagement with the colonel's daughter is off, eh?
The Lieutenant—Yes; I was mustered out last Sunday.

Contrariwise.
"Jabs has gone and married a girl, thinking her father a millionaire, and he's just failed and they're dead poor."
"Oh, what a rich joke!"

His Subject.
"I heard that congressman say he wanted to have a long-distance talk."
"Then I bet it's about his mileage."

Repaid.
"Married again? And you were so deeply pained when you lost your wife?"
"Yes, yes. I felt as if I had a tooth pulled. Well, I had another one put in."—Illustration (Paris).

Hey, Rubel!
"What was the row in the sidewalk this morning, Bill?"
"The two-headed man quarreled with himself as to which head should get shaved first."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

You may use an old favorite recipe and the best of materials and make it carefully, the oven may be just right, yet you will have a failure if "The Power behind the Dough" is not the right one to leaven it properly and make it light, digestible, wholesome.

Good baking without good baking powder is out of the question. K.C. Baking Powder has wonderful leavening power, and the double action—in the bowl and in the oven—makes good results doubly certain. Take no chances of failure—use K.C. and have "good luck" every time. At all Grocers.

VICTIM OF CRUEL DECEPTION

Fair Seaside Visitor Satisfied She Had Seen Remarkable "Government Salting Apparatus."

They were passing the holiday at Onset and during the course of the sunny afternoon took a stroll on the beach. At one point they came upon an improvised breakwater, where some resident had filled bags with sand and piled them in breastworks fashion to prevent the sea from encroaching upon his land during the stormy season.

One of the young ladies was curious immediately. She would know what the bags were for.
"Why, it's very simple," explained her companion with due gravity. "The water in Onset bay originally was fresh, a peculiarity of nature which has puzzled scientists. It seemed too bad to deprive the place of seashore advantages so the government took the matter in hand, filled the bags with salt and thereby has imparted the proper flavor to Onset water."

Far from rebuking him for being "fresh," she is now telling her friends of having seen the "government salting apparatus" down there.

Such a Long Time Ago.
He had just reached the philosophical stage when he slipped into a restaurant between bars for a bit to eat. He ordered. Then he sat staring ahead, quietly thoughtful in expression, and waited.

It was admitted he did some waiting. To what happened to his order couldn't be understood outside the peculiar convolutions of a restaurant kitchen, but he spent half an hour sitting there staring ahead of him.
At last it came. As the waitress put the order before him he started from his deep study, as if he had forgotten he had an order coming. Then, looking up at the fair transporter of edibles, he said:
"You don't look a day older!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

Ready to Risk It.
"Mr. Jones wants a windy-pane twelve inches be fourteen," remarked young Patrick Mullrooney, entering the glazier's shop.
In the shop was a smart young assistant who wanted to have a joke with Pat.

"Haven't any that size," he replied gravely. "Will one fourteen inches by twelve do?"
Pat looked thoughtful for a minute. Then he replied:
"He's wantin' it at once, and this is the only shop in town. Give me wan o' them. Perhaps if we put it in sideways no one will notice."

Envious.
"What is the matter, Alice?" asked her mother as the little girl came home crying as if her heart would break.
"Mabel Jones has got adenoids and I never have anything," sobbed Alice.

Cotton in California.
Since cotton was first planted in Imperial valley, California, as an experiment, about eight years ago, the acreage has increased yearly until it is now 65,000, yielding 50,000 bales. The United States department of agriculture says the country's production per acre is more than twice that of any other part of the country. In the valley there are nineteen cotton gins, three cottonseed oil mills, and three compresses. Over half the acreage is in the vicinity of Calexico, there being there eight gins, two oil mills, and one compress, all busy day and night during the winter making by-products like cottonseed oil, cottonseed feed and hulls.

Woke Him Up.
The young man was rather slow. So the girl thought it time to give him a hint.
"Gracious," she exclaimed suddenly, "I've bruised my lip! Do you know, Mr. Jenkins, my mother always used to kiss a hurt place to make it well?"
"And did it do any good?" asked the young man, failing to see the point.
"I don't remember," replied the girl, getting desperate; "but those old-fashioned remedies are sometimes very good."
Then he got busy.

Sure Cure.
